Examination Committee

The Examination Committee consists of four to six voting members. Although quorum is FOUR voting members, it is recommended that the Examination Committee include at least FIVE voting members to ensure the examination proceeds as scheduled.

The Committee must include:

- at least one member, but no more than three of the candidate's Advisory Committee;
- at least two or three examiners, who have not been closely involved in the supervision of the thesis. (Those eligible include the External Appraiser, appointed faculty members of the candidate's graduate unit, and appointed faculty members from other graduate units at the University.)

The Examination Committee may also include up to two non-voting members.

You must ascertain in advance that the persons nominated are willing to serve on the Examination Committee. Exceptions to the above composition must be approved by the Associate Dean of the relevant division of the School of Graduate Studies.
