

Jeff Boutilier

Jeff Boutilier is a seasoned pharmacist and executive business leader with 20 years of experience working within the health care industry.

Jeff is presently the Senior Vice President of Pharmacy at Rexall where he leads the pharmacy central support teams across pharmacy central operations, business development, professional affairs and payor relations.

Jeff has extensive experience through his career leading retail pharmacy operations, sales and business development, strategy, specialty and long term care business, as well as serving as a Chief Clinical Officer and General Manager in the Pharmacy Benefits Management industry.

Jeff is a tremendous advocate of the continued expanding scope of pharmacy practice within Canada. He presently serves on the Board of Directors for Neighbourhood Pharmacy Association of Canada. Jeff graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy from Dalhousie University and has a MBA along with a Masters certificate Lean Six Sigma Blackbelt.

